ORDER

20 CR 517-2 (VB)
 21 CR 441-2 (VB)

Having considered the government's August 4, 2023, letter in opposition to defendant's motion for a reduction in sentence pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3582(c)(2), the motion is DENIED WITHOUT PREJUDICE.

Defendant's motion—which is based on a proposed amendment to the U.S. Sentencing Guidelines—is premature. The effective date of the proposed amendment is November 1, 2023, assuming Congress does not modify or disapprove the amendment. Moreover, even if the proposed amendment results in a lower sentencing range for defendant, in deciding whether to reduce defendant's sentence pursuant to Section 3582(c)(2), the Court is required to consider the factors set forth in 18 U.S.C. § 3553(e) "to the extent that they are applicable." Thus, it would be premature for the Court to decide now whether the proposed amendment will result in a lower sentencing range and, if so, whether a reduced sentence would be appropriate in view of the Section 3553(a) factors.

If and when the proposed amendment goes into effect, defendant may re-file his motion.
